

Axel Fischer, vita

Born in Erlangen (Bavaria, Germany) in 1973, Axel studied media, literature and social anthropology at the University of Marburg. After being employed in the field of cultural management by the Cities of Marburg and Kassel, he worked for the University of Marburg. He conducted several research projects, among others one for the Department for Media Studies and the International Research and Documentation Center War Crimes Trials on the U.S. American film campaign about the Major War Criminals' Trial, Nuremberg.

Since 2018, he is a Research Associate at the Nuremberg Municipal Museums, Memorium Nuremberg Trials.

